MINIMUM VIABLE PRODUCT

What is the smallest thing I can make for this? Exactly what is it?
 2x3 inch page x 8, some text & some pictures = 1 zine. If I can do one page in 15 minutes, the zine will take 2 hours. If I go less than 8 pages, I feel like it's a pamphlet. Hm, maybe I should try a 4 page zine, it only take an hour!

THE DOING CYCLE

Do something a lot, and you'll get good at it. We develop a love for what we're good at, then doing is easy.

The cycle can start anywhere, but the only thing you have conscious control over is Action!

START NOW!

JOURNALING

How long does it take? How did I feel about it? How did I do that?

Take notes at every step of the process. Don't over think it, just write a few thoughts and move on. I started this zine at 12:30, and it's now 1:10. I have a little piece of knowledge now!

THE TEMPLE

The temple represents the external Universe. The Magician must take it as they find it. -LiberABA-Panthei-only those with the most privileged of births will be endowed with the perfect temple. However, the power of the magician does not come from their money. the greatest magician can work the highest magick inside the temple of a broom closet!

SYMBOLS!

Don't impend the function, but cover your space in ART!

♂ ♀ Laptop stickers, posters, Graffiti, everything!

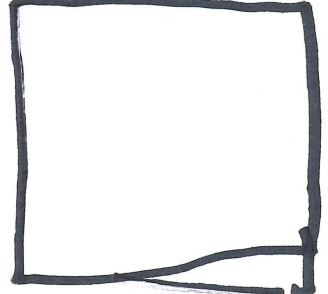

THE CIRCLE

The circle announces the Nature of the work. Place the circle in your temple, and in the circle put all the things to do the work.

Follow for Good Luck
